

THE TIMES OF INDIA

www.educationtimes.com

Education Times

MONDAY | MAY 5, 2014

TOWARDS TOMORROW

DELHI EDITION

6 [>] MONDAY
MAY 5, 2014

www.educationtimes.com

Student Speak

Courses

DUAL MBA

Manav Rachna International University (MRIU) signed an memorandum of understanding with Edinburgh Napier University (ENU), UK, for a dual MBA degree programme. Under the partnership, MBA students may take three modules from ENU's MBA curriculum with lectures delivered by its faculty on the MRIU campus in Faridabad.

WOMEN LEADERS

Corporate leaders Naina Lal Kidwai, Manisha Girotra and Dipali Goenka, held out a multi-pronged 'mantra' for overcoming competition and societal pressures in achieving high stations at the workplace, at an event. At a panel discussion on 'Rising power of women in the corporate sector: The journey, issues and challenges', organised by FICCI Ladies Organisation, they said women needed to work out and maintain a work-home balance.

CLIMATE CHANGE

University of Delhi's Campus Law Centre organised an international conference on 'Mitigation of climate change: law, policy and governance' from April 25-27. Swatanter Kumar, chairperson, National Green Tribunal, Delhi, was the chief guest. Dinesh Singh, vice chancellor, DU, delivered the presidential address.