FICCI LADIES WING VISITING BHUTAN TODAY

New Delhi, 9 September: A 50-member Ficci Ladies Organisation (FLO) is visiting Bhutan from tomorrow to discuss with Bhutanese entrepreneurs how business women can engage and expand their businesses. One of the largest contingents of its kind, it will be led by Ms Neeta Boochra, president of FLO.

A Ficci statement said that the objective of the visit is to explore and discuss how business women can engage and expand their business. The delegation will explore opportunities in the sectors such as education, textile, hydro power, construction, gems and jewellery, chemicals, garments, art and tourism. The all-women business delegation will engage in high-level interactions.
